

To whomsoever it may concern

This is to acknowledge, appreciate and applaud the efforts by Ms. Aashi Pandey in the capacity of a Youth Advocate at Excelencia Symposium, for a tenure of two months from 1/8/2020 to 1/10/2020.

New Delhi, India

2nd October 2020

Excelencia Symposium is a youth led organization focused at encouraging holistic development of young learners; the leaders of tomorrow. During the course of the program, Ms. Pandey catered to all the obligations with appreciative diligence and dedication. Her intellectual rigor and innovative fervor has been instrumental in making her a treasured asset to the organisation. Her work throughout the program corroborated with our vision and acted as the most valuable incentive in ascertaining success of the events undertaken during the program. Her creative finesse combined with expertise in the field of content writing made her indispensable to the team.

As a content team member, Ms. Pandey employed her literary finesse in curating worthwhile content for the social media handles of the organisation. She has been a remarkably steadfast and persevering advocate. Her playful approach with words reaches out to people, creating tangible impact. She has supervised a series of events with her meticulous way of managing and pursuing things. Among the various qualities displayed by her, the uniqueness of her ideas and the ability to execute them stands out.

We take extreme pride in substantiating that she did absolute justice to the responsibilities she was entrusted with; whilst maintaining professional courtesy and ensuring personal excellence. We firmly believe that her expertise in the said arena and the gained experience will make her an indispensable asset to any organisation/institution.
