Alumni Name: Pratyush Jain (Alumnus Ryan international School, Rohini)

Topic: Unpredictability: A blessing in disguise

Brief about webinar:

1. Talk about my journey - a high school boy to a consultant.
 2. Coaching and mentoring I got from the school, teachers
 3. Peers (best friendships in school) - two people I always meet when I am in Delhi are my school buddies
 4. Work hard and play harder - you don't have to always work to be successful - you can enjoy life and still be successful. You don't just work hard but you work smart
 5. High school is still one of the best times of my life. You will struggle, you will become stronger because of it. And the struggle doesn't end here. You should know that. There will be more struggles. But you will learn as you grow. - you grow by interacting with different people: so don't compromise on that - you gain emotional and mental support from your close friends: so don't take them for granted - how important it is to have a work ethic; How I used to study and how to smart work?
- it's so important to create memories. No one looks back at their high school days and remember the time they were memorising but you also don't want to look back and regret thinking about the opportunities you missed.
