

The Army Medical Corps under the Government of India annually offers short service commission for MBBS graduates who have passed the course in the first or second attempt and have completed internship as an officer. The candidate must have obtained permanent registration from any State Medical Council or the Medical Council of India. Postgraduate degree holders viz. MD, MS, M.Ch. and DM will also be considered.

Postgraduate degree holders in anaesthesia, surgery, obstetrics and gynaecology, medicine, orthopaedics, respiratory medicine will be given preference. Age should not exceed 45 years. Only Indian nationals will be considered.

Eligible candidates will be called for an interview by the board officers at the Army Hospital, Delhi, in order to assess the suitability and merit for granting short service commission in the Armed Forces Medical Services. The final selection will be on the basis of medical fitness examination.

The selected candidates can get posting in any part of the country in the Army, Navy or Air Force.

On completion of two years of service, short service commissioned officers can apply for Departmental Permanent Commission, provided they have not attained the age of 30 years. An officer can apply for postgraduate course on completion of two years of service after grant of permanent commission.

Recruitment notification will be published in Employment News Weekly, a government of India periodical and in leading news papers. Applications are invited from the Indian citizens, both male and female, who have passed their final MBBS examination and completed internship for grant of short service commission in the Army Medical Corps.

Medical PG degree holders (MD/ MS/ M.Ch./ DM) in anaesthesia, surgery, obstetrics and gynaecology, medicine, orthopaedics and respiratory medicine will be given preference. The candidate must not have attained 45 years of age as on December 31, 2011. The total number of vacancies available this year is 100. Application form and other details can be had either from the web site www.indianarmy.nic.in