Sir/Maam

I just completed my class 12 with PCM Eco combination. In class 10 I scored 93%. I was even appointed as the cultural prefect of the school for my achievements in music at National level. I play the piano.

I am really confused about the universities I need to apply. In class 12 I'm expecting around 90%.

It will be very kind in your part if you can help me with the applications and colleges I should apply

Regards
