Good afternoon sir/mam Actually I am little confused about which stream should I select. There is no forcement from the family. I want to be software engineer which could be achieved by choosing the science stream. But nowadaysmost of them are job seekers. And i also have an interest in acturial science. Which could be achieved by commerce. So i want some solution for this problem as less than 1 year is left for choosing the stream and i want to do excel whatever I choose in upcoming years. So pls help me. Thanks and regards
