Dear Ms. Praardhana,

Greetings !!

Thanks for the call, which is really appreciable. It can give the aspirant a way forward for increasing his/her horizons, Selection of best suited colleges, Choice of subjects which is ultimately aligned with the upward link for many of the possibilities.

Just the brief, which we all have discussed over teleconference keeping my Daughter Ms. Praanjali also in the loop. It was started with the briefing of her choice of subjects in 12th humanities (Economics, History and Political Science). In fact, these subjects are written as per her choice and interest for pursuing her Bachelor's degree.

Her preferable choice would be (A) Delhi (B) Pune (C) Bangalore (D) Mumbai but other cities and places would also can be considered on availability of good course and the institution. We expect that You all must intimate the students and the respective guardian on the admission form availability for (A) Delhi University (B) St. Joseph, Bangalore and others in time, so that without any delay, we all shall also be prompt and proactive in submitting the application. We have also requested, if you can PLEASE get the idea on the Bsc (Economics) through IITs in India specially of Mumbai IIT. WE all know, IIT Mumbai is running the course on this subject; so kindly let us know the eligibility criteria. Praanjali has a liking for Economics and History ; these two subjects are ranked by her as 1 & 2, so kindly share the necessary information of the reputed colleges please. We also briefed about the Development Studies, But sorry, we would have applied, if could had got the details for filling up the application in time; so we missed the bus. Nevertheless, it is requested, if you can please get more details on it and also is there any possibilities for applying for this course available in IIT – Chennai. If you can kindly share the list of the colleges which is based on Merit and college of repute for pursuing the course in development studies viz. Bachelors in Social Work or In Social Sciences. About Symbiosis and CLAT, we already updated you where Praanjali has already applied. You also responded that for Symbiosis, there is an entrance which is comprised of (A) Amplitude Test, (B) Logical reasoning (C) General Knowledge; this pattern is also applicable for St. Christ Church, Bangalore. You have suggested that SOME reference BOOKs will be shared by you, which will be workable and beneficial for Praanjali. You also briefed about UDEMY and COURSERA where Praanjali can pursue her crash course in the meantime as per her interest based on the Humanities domain. You have also briefed about IELTS and TOFFEL when enquired. As stated by you ONLY eligibility for IELTS is that the aspirants shall be more than 16 years and this is online. that after the registration, in one month time, the test is conducted. IELTS is specially meant for UK and TOFFEL for USA. But in your suggestion, IELTS is most preferred by the host nations in all across the globe. We have enquired about AMITY UNIVERSITY, specially about its NOIDA cents, hence, may like to request, Kindly share more information into it considering her choice of subjects as listed and mentioned in the mail. Ashoka University has a course alleged with Liberal Arts; BUT this university is very COST Intensive, so may not consider the same. Please share the HELPLINE of your organisation, so for any information if required can also be asked through the telecall.

Regards,

Pradeep Ghosal
