

Subject Profiles

English

A confident and vociferous girl, Dakshita has strong opinions which she likes sharing with her peers and teachers. An analytical student, Dakshita enjoys engaging in classroom discussions. She also enjoys the serendipity available on the web for fresh linguistic challenges. Dakshita takes great pride in her work and enjoys receiving verbal accolades for her tenacity. She is open to facing correction and tries to ensure that her errors are not repetitive in nature. Her ready wit and gentle humour make her a welcome member of the class.

Economic

Dakshita is a hardworking student of the subject. She takes keen interest in the Statistics. She is actively participative in the class and quickly understand the concepts done in the class. She takes feedback with open mind. She commits very few mistakes in calculations, but when she does them she quickly learns from them. Her understanding as well as written expression of concepts and ideas in Indian Economics is good.

Accountancy

Dakshita is an outgoing girl who goes out of her way to help her peers. She does not even mind compromising upon her own goals if someone else needs help. An intellectual girl her responses are prompt and analytical. Dakshita is not utilizing her potential to her best of abilities. She needs to gear herself up for grade 12 academics and its demands.

Business Studies

Business Studies is an area of strength for Dakshita and her interest in the subject backed by her ability to present her answers very systematically will help her score well. For her project, she is working on an idea of a marketing a water filter for the rural areas and I really appreciate the time and effort she has invested in order to research all aspects related to it. She just needs to revise the concepts covered in Term I regularly to do very well in this subject.

Political Science

Dakshita is a confident student, she is very observant in the class who has immense curiosity and asks intelligent questions. She enjoys taking part in class discussions. Her thinking and reasoning skills are sharp, e.g.- she inquired about the fact that if the right to life is sacrosanct then why do we have a death penalty? She loves to explore all areas of learning. Her enthusiasm in all fields deserves an applause, e.g.- MUN participation. She needs to work on her writing skills, she can improve with a little more effort.