

Your Personality

Your personality type is INFP:

Introversion (I) vs. Extraversion (E)

How we interact with the world and where we direct our energy.

Introversion

- Focus attention inward
- Enjoy tasks that require concentration
- Work best on one project at a time
- Work at a careful, steady pace
- Consider things fully before speaking

Extraversion

- Focus attention outward
- Enjoy a variety of tasks
- Seek out and need other people
- Work at a rapid pace
- Need to talk through their ideas

Sensing (S) vs iNtuition (N)

What kind of information we naturally focus on and remember.

Sensing

- Focus on "what is"
- Like working with what can be seen and touched
- Apply past experience to solving problems
- Need specific and realistic directions

iNtuition

- Focus on "what could be"
- Enjoy theory and speculation
- Like thinking about the future and possibilities
- Need to use their imagination

Thinking (T) vs. Feeling (F)

Make decisions logically and impersonally, or use personal values.

Thinking

- Are motivated by achievement
- Enjoy analyzing problems logically
- Make fair and unbiased decisions
- Need to weigh the pros and cons to make decisions
- Can be tough negotiators

Feeling

- · Motivated by work that is meaningful
- Sensitive to how issues affect people
- Like helping others and being appreciated
- Need decisions to be congruent with their values
- Need to work in a friendly environment

Judging (J) vs. Perceiving (P)

More structured (finalize decisions) or more spontaneous (keep options open).

Judging

- Enjoy work that allows them to make decisions
- Prefer a predictable work pattern and environment
- Work towards completing their responsibilities before relaxing
- Like to maintain control of their projects

Perceiving

- Enjoy flexible and changing work situations
- Like to be able to respond to problems as they arise
- Are more satisfied with fewer rules and procedures
- Need to have fun in their work

Your Personality Profile

Sensitive and idealistic, you strive for inner harmony. You are a loyal and empathetic friend, devoted to the people and issues you care about. While you may appear cool or detached at times, you have very strong and passionate feelings. You trust your personal reactions and perceptions and use your values to guide your life.

Curious about possibilities, you enjoy many creative endeavors. You can be an original thinker and like using your imagination. Personally invested in everything you do, you can be very persuasive about your dreams and ideas -- but only share them with people you trust. Thoughtful and complex, you are not especially interested in imposing your views on others. You are very protective of your privacy and highly selective about your friends.

When working on a cause you believe in, you can lose yourself in the project and neglect other pressing issues. You are very sensitive to tension and prefer to avoid conflict at all costs. You have trouble letting go of past hurts and may hold grudges. You tend to see only the good in those you care about, and risk being easily disappointed.

You need creative ways of expressing yourself. You are not especially realistic or logical, and sometimes go off course with your projects. A perfectionist, you have very high standards and may be unwilling to share your ideas until they are flawless. You can be hypersensitive to criticism and tend to take all feedback personally. Without feedback, you may fail to make necessary adjustments and end up with unworkable or unfinished projects. You need to ask for constructive advice and listen to it with objectivity.

You set extremely high standards for yourself, do very thorough research, and like to remain open to continual improvements. You may become so absorbed in an assignment that you lose track of other things that need to be done. All of this can result in delays and stress. Try breaking assignments into manageable pieces and set yourself a deadline to complete each step. Also, review the requirements and ensure your plans are realistic and feasible. If you're stuck, ask your instructor for advice — and be willing to follow it.
 If you find the learning material uninteresting, think of ways to make the subject more personally meaningful. For example, how could it be used to help people or solve a societal problem? This can make it more relevant and appealing and easier to absorb and retain. Ask your instructor if you can use different methods to complete an assignment. Be prepared to suggest some alternatives.

You like to receive regular encouragement. Let your instructor know that you appreciate feedback and like to know what you're doing well. Be prepared to hear constructive criticism too. Remember that all feedback is intended to help you grow. Think about how you can use corrective feedback to improve.

For Learning Environments

Look for programs that are compatible with your core values, where you can be true to yourself and pursue your quest for meaning and harmony. Some areas that may be of interest include the arts, humanities, theoretical, philosophical, educational or humanitarian fields. You may want to investigate independent study programs, interdisciplinary studies and opportunities to design your own major.

Look for an educational setting that is welcoming, tolerant and supportive, with an emphasis on cooperation, diversity and creative self-expression. Seek out approachable, inspirational instructors. Your ideal learning space is a caring, friendly environment where you can learn on your own or with a small group. When you need time alone to reflect, find a peaceful spot away from others. This might be a room at home or a quiet location in a public place such as a park, library or place of worship.

| Participate in extracurricular activities that allow you to focus on causes or issues you care about and be able to feel like you're making a difference. For example, you could get involved with the school newspaper or a community arts organization, help out with a literacy program, volunteer at a local charity or offer one-on-one tutoring to other students. | | | |

| | can use this perceptiveness, together with your other strengths, to support others, help them feel good about |
| | themselves and guide them in finding solutions to their problems. |
| П | While you don't seek out the spotlight and aren't quick to share your feelings with others, you express yourself well. |
| | You likely excel at writing and can be a very capable public speaker when the topic is something you feel strongly |
| | about. You can use these strengths to promote your cause and help others understand and support it. |

You tend to be quite guarded around people you don't know well. This can make it difficult for others to get to know you and may cause them to see you as somewhat cold or distant. You, in return, may feel unappreciated or misunderstood. Look for shared interests that will help you relate to the other person, and be willing to open up a little about yourself. This can lead to a meaningful discussion and greater understanding.

Supportive and encouraging, you likely provide plenty of praise and thoughtful feedback to others. You appreciate positive feedback yourself, but may find constructive criticism very difficult to take. When receiving corrective feedback, understand that it's intended to help. It's not an attack on you as a person. Try to focus on the problematic issue or behavior and make a plan to address it.

While you enjoy being with people, you are most comfortable with one-on-one conversations and may find it tiring dealing with large groups of people. If you're exhausted after lengthy periods of interaction, spend some time on your own to recharge.
