Make tomorrow better.

“Curtin University acknowledges the Nyungar people as the traditional owners of the land on which our main campus is sited.

In times gone, Nyungars would get permission to cross another person’s territory.

These days, Nyungar elders from particular places perform a ‘welcome to country’, to welcome visitors to this land.

We hope to welcome you to our shores soon, to join the Curtin community as we strive to make tomorrow better.”

A GREATER CURTIN

Join us as we plan for a greater Curtin. The Curtin 2030 Master Plan will transform our main campus into a culture hub, connecting the University and the broader community in innovative, collaborative and enriching new ways.

The transformation will make Curtin a vibrant destination to work, study and play. The latest technology will support new facilities and creative methods of expression, blurring the lines between scheduled classes, spontaneous social interactions and on-campus activities.

The change will go beyond the campus. We want to create a better quality of life for Western Australian residents and visitors through urban renewal, clever and sustainable design, high-quality public spaces and social outcomes.

And it's already happening. Exciting initiatives like the addition of pop-up food trucks and the Curtin outdoor cinema are transforming campus life.

More exciting changes are coming soon some of which you could be a part of! Join our journey to lead the way in innovation.

RESEARCH AT CURTIN

CHANGING MINDS, LIVES AND THE WORLD.

Strong, strategic partnerships and the recruitment of exemplary research leaders have been important in the establishment and growth of Curtin's research programs.

Our students and staff are involved in more than 50 major research institutes, as well as 11 industry-focused, cooperative research centres.

MINERALS AND ENERGY

Curtin's research in minerals and energy is aimed at maximising existing resources and developing innovative, technological solutions to address our future needs. Research groups from across the University undertake both fundamental and applied research in resource exploration, extraction and processing; the development of new materials, energy sources and fuel technologies; mineral and energy economics and policy; and the impact of mining on remote communities.

ICT AND EMERGING TECHNOLOGIES

Information communication technology (ICT) and emerging technologies is a broad area of study concerned with the use of technology to communicate and use information. Researchers from Curtin are involved in the international Square Kilometre Array (SKA), the world's largest radio astronomy project. Radio astronomers, electrical engineers and computational scientists are all contributing their expertise to this exciting endeavour. Curtin also continues research initiatives across areas such as spatial science, wireless telecommunications, digital humanities, e-business, e-health and digital ontologies.

HEALTH

Curtin is the largest and most comprehensive provider of health sciences research in Western Australia. Health science students have excellent opportunities to join programs within the Curtin Health Innovation Research Institute (CHIRI), which takes an innovative approach to addressing the burden of chronic conditions and lifestyle diseases that impact on the social and economic sustainability of communities worldwide. Research conducted at CHIRI focuses on five primary themes: ageing, chronic disease, Indigenous health, mental health and population health.

SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT

One of the core concerns of governments and communities worldwide is sustainable development. Curtin offers research opportunities in sustainable development in two broad areas: built environment and natural environment. The first includes social/cultural sustainability, urban design construction management, and sustainable cities, while the second is concerned with climate change, biodiversity, sustainable tourism, food security, and sustainable resource processing.

The Murchison Wide Field Array

Curtin is a leader in the preconstruction of the world's most powerful radio telescope, which will change our understanding of the cosmos.

We're helping prepare the world for the arrival of the $2.5 billion Square Kilometre Array (SKA) radio telescope, which will be the largest and most powerful ground-based array ever built.

Curtin collaborates in a joint venture known as the International Centre for Radio Astronomy Research, and plays a key role in the SKA project, due to begin construction in 2017. The array will stretch across Western Australia and South Africa, with early science expected in 2020.

As well as the SKA engineering activities, Curtin leads a prestigious group of partners, including MIT and Harvard, on an SKA-low precursor project known as the Murchison Widefield Array (MWA), a low-frequency radio telescope that will play a vital role in developing the SKA's low-frequency science program.

TRANSFER AND STUDY ABROAD OPPORTUNITIES

The iconic Cottesloe Beach, Western Australia.

Studying at Curtin doesn't mean you have to attend our main campus in Perth. Depending on the course you study, you could attend our campuses in Singapore or Malaysia, to complete part of your course with no interruption to your studies.

All aspects of the curriculum and the calibre of academic staff remain constant between Singapore, Malaysia and Perth.

There are also opportunities to study at one of our partner institutions across Europe, Asia and North and South America!

Travelling and experiencing different cultures while you study can add a valuable dimension to your studies and help expand your horizons.

STUDYING AT CURTIN AS A STUDY ABROAD STUDENT

If you're already studying a university degree in your home country, you may be able to complete one or two semesters of your degree at Curtin.

STUDENT EXCHANGE

If your university is a Curtin exchange partner, you will continue paying tuition fees to your home institution whilst studying for 1 or 2 semesters at Curtin.

WHY PERTH?

Ranked one of the world's top 10 most liveable cities

The Economist Intelligence Unit
2015

SAFE, PROSPEROUS, MULTICULTURAL.

Get a great education from Curtin University and enjoy the lifestyle of one of the world's most pleasant cities.

As the capital of Western Australia, Perth is an ideal destination for students and tourists alike. You'll benefit from a strong healthcare system, a well-developed education system and rapidly expanding infrastructure programs.

It's no wonder Perth was once again ranked as one of the world's top 10 most liveable cities by The Economist Intelligence Unit in 2015.

BEAUTIFUL WEATHER. COSMOPOLITAN LIFESTYLE

Perth is a vibrant and multicultural city, with exciting opportunities for learning, shopping and exploring the vast nature reserves of Western Australia. The city gets more sunshine than any other Australian capital, giving you more opportunities to mix study with your favourite activities.

Featuring all the advantages of a modern and developed city, Perth is set against the stunning backdrop of the Indian Ocean and combines natural beauty with period architecture. Browse for fashion on Murray Street Mall, learn to surf on the iconic Scarborough Beach or enjoy a cappuccino on the historic Fremantle strip. There's more to do and see in Perth than ever before.

SEE MORE FOR LESS

With so many attractions, you'll appreciate having a reliable public transport system on hand. A network of ferries, trains and buses means the city's most popular destinations are no more than a few connections away. With discounted student transport fares you'll have the chance to see more for less.

LEARN TO SURF OR JUST GO FOR A QUICK DIP

Warm waters, white sand and stunning sunsets – Perth's beaches are seen by many as the best in the country. Why not find out for yourself? With opportunities to go surfing, snorkeling, sailing and jet skiing, or just relaxing, the beach is the favourite summer destination for residents and visitors alike.

STAY IN TOUCH WITH THE PEOPLE YOU LOVE

Since Perth is located in the same time zone as cities like Hong Kong, Singapore, Beijing and Kuala Lumpur, it's convenient to contact your loved ones while you study.

Alternatively, why not catch the next flight home? Perth's international airport is well served by flights connecting the region with the world. Frequent flights and a broad choice of airlines mean it couldn't be easier for you to visit home.

ENJOY SOME OF THE WORLD'S BEST FOOD AND ENTERTAINMENT

Perth offers a huge range of dining and entertainment options that reflect the cultural diversity of the city. In Northbridge, the city's cultural precinct, the restaurant and small bar scene is growing rapidly. PLANNING YOUR BUDGET

Planning your budget and finances is an important element of making the most of your time in the city.

Living expenses in Australia can vary, depending on your personal tastes. You should have access to at least A$3,300 when you arrive to settle in. This money will cover costs, such as your bond money (property insurance) and any advance rent payable. Costs associated with electricity, gas and telephone services are usually paid later.

Your day-to-day living costs will vary based on your tastes, interests and financial position. You should plan a budget to suit your needs, but make sure it is flexible enough to allow for changes.

WORK

Your student visa gives you permission to work in Australia once you have started your course. Students are permitted to work a maximum of 40 hours per fortnight during semester, and unlimited hours during semester breaks. You shouldn't rely on your earnings to pay your tuition fees or other living expenses.

VISAS

To meet your course requirements, you must be enrolled as a full-time internal student and maintain satisfactory course progress for each study period. Not all units are available every semester, so you may have to apply for another visa to complete your course if you fail a unit.

If the units you need to graduate are not offered, you may have to return home and re-apply for admission. This may incur additional costs for your visa application, tuition fees and living expenses.

HEALTH

You must purchase Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC) from a registered health provider approved by the Australian Government Department of Health and Ageing.

All international students need to purchase OSHC before their student visa will be granted. Your OSHC must cover the full length of your student visa.

SCHOOL-AGE DEPENDANTS

In Western Australia, dependants of international students may be enrolled in either government (public) or non-government (private) schools registered by the Commonwealth Register of Institutions and Courses for Overseas Students (CRICOS), provided the school has the capacity to accept them. A visa for the dependant/s must be obtained through the Department of Immigration and Border Protection (DIBP) or a representative. If a Confirmation of Placement (CoP) letter is required by DIBP (as evidence of dependant/s school enrolment in Western Australia), visit international.curtin.edu.au/pre-departure/family to access the Curtin Dependant Schooling Information Sheet.

Both public and private schools require the payment of full international tuition fees where applicable. Government (public) school fees vary for dependants of undergraduate students, postgraduate students and some scholarship students. It is important to understand these costs BEFORE your dependant/s arrive in Australia. These fees will also be listed on your Confirmation of Placement (CoP) letter once issued by Education & Training International (ETI).

For more information and for contacts regarding visa processing, obtaining a CoP letter, school fees, enrolments and a list of schools, visit international.curtin.edu.au/pre-departure/family and download the Dependant Schooling Information Sheet. You can also contact the International Sponsored Students Unit at issu@curtin.edu.au

Note: Dependants of postgraduate international students (master by coursework or research and PhD only) on sub-class visas 573 and 574 and Australia Awards Scholarship students on visa 576 can be enrolled in selected public schools in Western Australia at local student rates, provided that the school has been registered and has the capacity to accept them.

Note: If dependants enrolled in a public school require English tuition support in a mainstream classroom or placement at an Intensive English Centre, fees may range from A$1,500 to A$3,000 per year, depending on the child's requirements. This will be an additional charge to the relevant school fees and will be determined by the enrolling school. These associated costs are paid by the student, not by Curtin or the Western Australian Department of Education. It is recommended that dependants commence English language training before arriving in Perth. Programs for dependants with special needs (such as disabilities) are costed on the basis of the child's requirements in accordance with the Department of Education's inclusive education standards. These costs can range between a few thousand dollars to over $30,000.

HEALTH SCIENCES

For a new generation of health professionals.

Offering contemporary facilities, practical learning opportunities and leading research, Curtin's health sciences interprofessional courses and research degrees have been developed to ensure you graduate with the skills and knowledge employers are looking for.

Curtin was the first Australian university to introduce an interprofessional education curriculum across all its health degrees. Through this unique curriculum, you'll gain an understanding of your chosen health career as an integrated, not isolated, area of knowledge. You'll work as a healthcare team at university and on integrated clinical placements, to deliver safer and higher quality client-centred care.

The faculty is also internationally recognised for its leadership in health research, policy and practice. Students and staff are involved in various projects, including the development of practical solutions to global health challenges, working with partners and communities to advance health and wellbeing around the world, and training towards leadership roles in the healthcare sector.

The recently established Health Sciences Research Precinct unites Curtin's health researchers with industry partners, government and the wider community.

MODERN FACILITIES FOR CAREER-READY GRADUATES

From university to the workplace, Curtin is committed to providing you with a modern learning environment to practise client-care scenarios in realistic settings. Our multiple on-campus, practice-based laboratories will enable you to interact with clients in authentic spaces that replicate hospital and community settings.

More than A$47 million has been invested in outstanding facilities including the occupational therapy and social work learning and research laboratories, the research precinct and a dedicated research hub for research students. It's these benefits that will ensure you're well-placed to launch or further your career upon graduating.

AWARD-WINNING STAFF

Our staff are actively involved in clinical practice, while leading professionals from the healthcare sector contribute to the delivery of courses. A number of Curtin health sciences academics have been awarded a National Teaching Fellowship by the Australian Government's Office for Learning and Teaching. These awards recognise top Australian university academics who've made a significant contribution to enhancing the quality of student learning.

INTERNATIONAL PROGRAMS AND ACCREDITATION

Many of our health sciences courses are accredited, allowing you to make a real difference to healthcare in other countries around the globe, but you don't need to wait until you graduate.

The award-winning Go Global program gives you the chance to be immersed in a different culture while completing a fieldwork placement in Cambodia, China, India, Malaysia or the Philippines.

SERVING THE COMMUNITY

The Faculty of Health Sciences educates more health professionals than any other Western Australian institution.

HUMANITIES

For creative minds.

Do you believe that a single idea can change the world? If you're a creative or innovative person, you'll feel at home studying one of Curtin's undergraduate or postgraduate humanities courses. You'll gain the skills and knowledge to evaluate ideas, think analytically and use your imagination to develop solutions to global problems.

SEE YOUR IDEAS COME TO LIFE

You've come to the right place to explore your creativity while you study. Passionate lecturers and tutors, exciting facilities and important research are at the core of the Faculty of Humanities. Many of our courses are backed by professional accreditation and allow you to build your portfolio to showcase to future employers.

As a humanities student, you will be exposed to industry throughout the duration of your degree, providing you with the opportunity to learn from practical experience, create networks and advance your career.

No matter what your passion, Curtin has modern facilities to encourage creativity and facilitate the sharing of ideas.

Digital creativity labs, driven by a highspeed server for fast software access and room layouts that encourage creative thinking.

On-campus media outlets including Curtin FM 100.1 radio station, The Western Independent newspaper, Grok magazine and online news portal InkWire.

A film and television studio fitted with professional-level equipment including pedestal-mounted cameras, a fully equipped control room and digital video cameras.

The Hub for Immersive Visualisation and eResearch (HIVE), an advanced new facility serving the growing demand for visualisation, virtualisation and simulation.

RESEARCH WITH A COLLABORATIVE FOCUS

The Faculty of Humanities conducts a wide range of pure and applied research in the areas of arts, social sciences, built environment and education. Curtin is also actively involved in creative production in the areas of art, film and television, performance studies and literature.

The Centre for Culture and Technology is a research centre in the Faculty of Humanities. Located at the intersections of disciplinary and creative boundaries, it operates as a portal to research in media, digital practices, art, culture, theory and new technologies.

The faculty is also home to the Australasian Joint Research Centre for Building Information Modelling (BIM). BIM technology overlays a 3D model of what needs to be assembled in a physical space, helping to improve the efficiency of mega projects.

Other significant research initiatives of the faculty include the Curtin University Sustainability Policy (CUSP) Institute. As an internationally recognised research, teaching and policy advice provider in sustainability, the institute implements innovative policies through partnerships with business, government and the community.

SCIENCE AND ENGINEERING

For tomorrow's discoverers.

The Faculty of Science and Engineering is internationally recognised for its coursework and research in science, engineering and technology.

As a student or researcher, you'll benefit from innovative facilities, experienced staff and an international network of high-profile partners including Chevron, Woodside, Cisco and the University of Aberdeen. As a result, our graduates are well equipped to succeed in the workplace today and into the future.

PROFESSIONAL RECOGNITION

Our courses are recognised by leading professional bodies, both within Australia and internationally, making graduates highly employable regardless of where they choose to work.

For example, many of our engineering degrees are formally recognised by Engineers Australia as a step toward chartered engineer status, a worldwide benchmark in engineering.

We've been changing the game since 1903, when the Western Australian School of Mines was established. Since then, we've introduced the Engineering Foundation Year for undergraduates, created innovative learning spaces like the Landgate Spatial Sciences Studio and the Green Electric Energy Park, and built the A$32.5 million Curtin Engineering Pavilion Complex and A$116 million Resources and Chemistry Precinct.

COLLABORATIVE AND INNOVATIVE RESEARCH

Skilled staff and students conduct high-profile research that underpins Curtin's key areas of research focus. The faculty's research excellence continues to support Western Australia in becoming a major centre for education and research in engineering, science, mining, petroleum and agriculture.

The faculty has a number of cooperative research centres, centres of excellence and various other university research institutes.

These include the Fuels and Energy Technology Institute (FETI), which conducts both basic and applied research in energy and fuel conversions to develop advanced technologies that the commercial sector can utilise. FETI collaborates internationally with researchers in China, Korea, Japan, Denmark and the United States.

As part of the International Centre for Radio Astronomy Research, we're helping prepare the world for the arrival of the $2.5 billion Square Kilometre Array (SKA) radio telescope, which will be the largest and most powerful ground-based array ever built.

MAXIMUM INDUSTRY EXPOSURE

Whether you choose a science or engineering degree, you will benefit from a number of work experience opportunities, and have the chance to engage with students studying these complementary disciplines. Curtin's Science students engage in numerous field trips, laboratory work and hands-on assignments across all the science majors. Curtin's Resources and Chemistry Precinct also accommodates organisations like ChemCentre, a flagship chemical facility. You'll study within a vibrant research community and interact with a range of industries, potential employers and career paths in industry research.

If you study mining or metallurgical engineering, you'll study part or all of your degree at our Kalgoorlie Campus, placing you at the centre of one of the country's richest gold and nickel regions.

The Curtin Engineering Pavilion Complex serves as an area of interaction and collaboration between industry, students and academia. Consisting of the student-centred Curtin Engineering Pavilion and the engineering postgraduate research hub, the complex gives our engineering students a quality, applied education.

OUR ENTRY PATHWAYS

If you don't meet our minimum entry requirements, you may complete a program at Curtin English, Curtin College or both. These pathways enable you to study at a number of different levels and progress to an undergraduate or postgraduate qualification at Curtin.

CURTIN ENGLISH

Curtin English is part of Curtin University. These courses will develop your language skills and can help you demonstrate English competence for entry into mainstream Curtin courses via the English Language Bridging course. A language pathway will be tailored for you based on the language requirements of the mainstream course and current language levels.

Curtin English is accredited by the Tertiary Education Quality Standards (TEQSA) and quality assured by the National English Language Teaching Accreditation Scheme (NEAS).

As a Curtin English student, you'll have access to the University's facilities while studying in a friendly and supportive environment.

CURTIN ENGLISH PATHWAY

CRICOS CODE 090222G

Curtin English Pathway (CEP) is a flexible and personalised program that will build your confidence in using English for study, work or travel.

Each teaching week comprises 22 hours of class time per week, with a minimum of an extra 12 hours of self-directed study expected. Your tasks will include reading, writing, listening and speaking in English.

The program consists of six different levels, ranging from basic to intermediate. You can begin studying the program in any week the course is offered, and your starting level is determined by a test.

Throughout the program, you will maintain a portfolio to chart your progress. When your portfolio shows you're ready to move to the next level, you will be invited to complete a Gateway Assessment. These assessments are offered every two weeks, so you can move through the program at your own pace.

Depending on the English language entry requirement, successful completion of Intermediate 3 or Intermediate 4 of the CEP will allow entry to the next stage of your pathway, the English Language Bridging Program (see below) or a Curtin College degree transfer program (see page 26).

ENGLISH LANGUAGE BRIDGING*

CRICOS CODE 003896G

Designed for students from non-English speaking backgrounds, the English Language Bridging (ELB) course is an upper-intermediate academic English program that prepares you for undergraduate and postgraduate study at Curtin University. If you meet the exit requirements (as stated in your Letter of Offer), you are guaranteed entry into a Curtin degree program on successful completion of the course.

ELB progresses you beyond general and academic English and emphasises the language and study skills needed for university studies.

You should choose this course if you:

- want to develop your use of academic English to enable you to work more effectively during your undergraduate or postgraduate degree studies
- have a conditional offer from Curtin University that requires you to attend the English Language Bridging course to obtain a satisfactory English language result.

ELB has two entry points. If you are 1.0 IELTS band (or equivalent) below the university requirement for your chosen course, you will enrol for 17-weeks, whereas if you are 0.5 IELTS band (or equivalent) below the university entry requirement for your chosen course you will enrol for only 10 weeks.

If you are more than one IELTS band (or equivalent) below the university requirement for your chosen course, you will pass through CEP before progressing to the 17 week ELB. Curtin English will indicate the appropriate course duration on your Letter of Offer.

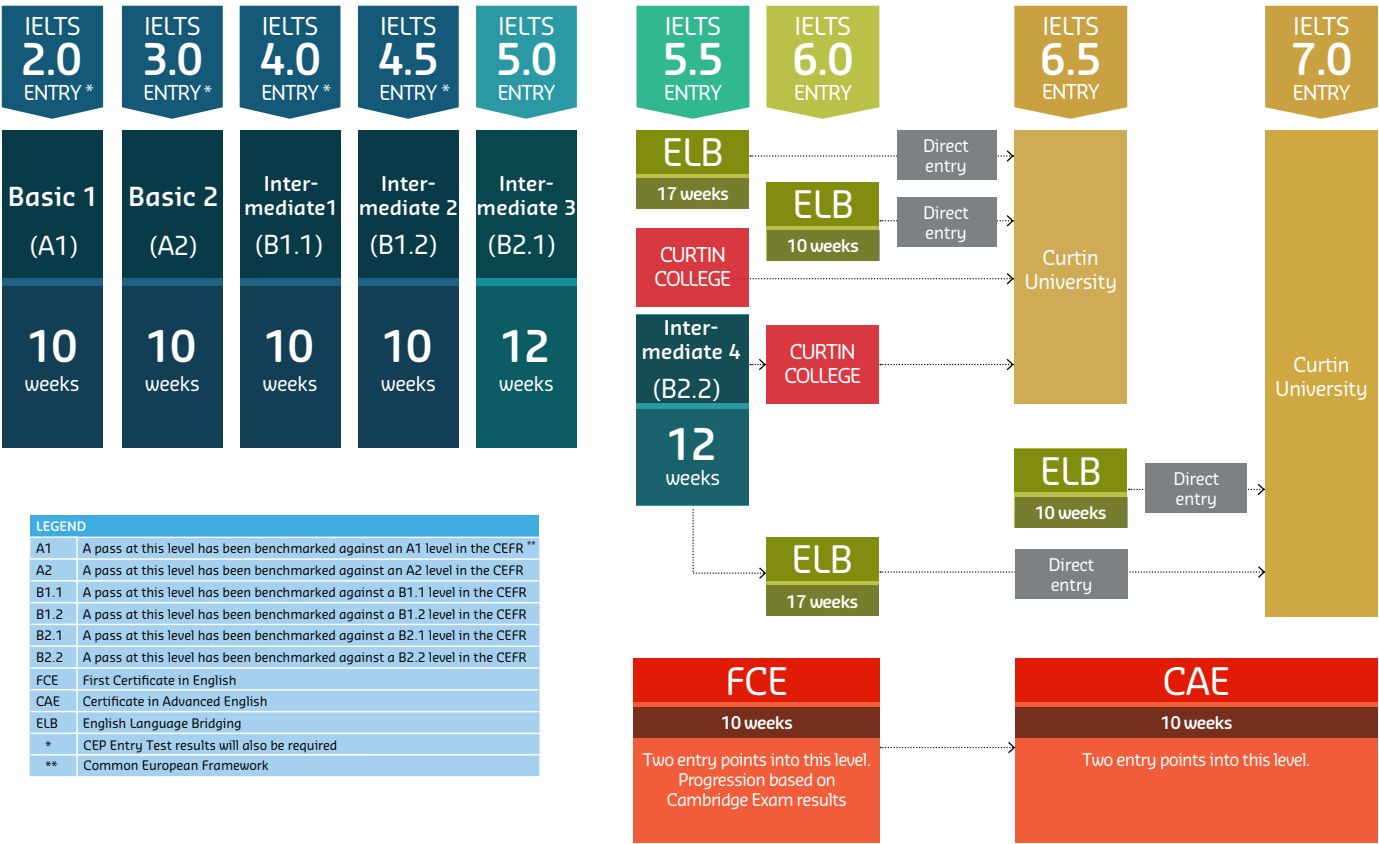

Teaching is intensive, with 22 teaching hours per week and a minimum of 12 hours per week of self-study. You will be assessed through graded ongoing research projects and presentations and end of course tests.

english.curtin.edu.au

*Australian Health Practitioner Regulation Agency (AHPRA) guidelines exist for physiotherapy and psychology courses. These guidelines require students undertaking postgraduate clinical placements to achieve an IELTS score of 7.0 across all bands, or an overall pass in the OET with grades A or B in each of the four components prior to embarking on clinical placements.

At time of publication, students wishing to enter the above courses at a postgraduate level will also need to submit an IELTS or OET after completing ELB.

ENGLISH LANGUAGE PATHWAYS BY IELTS ENTRY SCORE

NOTES

Each module of work is discrete and takes a week to complete, allowing students to enter and exit at any stage of the lesson cycle.

Each level has at least five modules of work above the recommended course duration so students taking longer to exit the level do not repeat material.

Gateway Assessments are based on the Cambridge Suite of Tests and can be sat every two weeks if classwork indicates students are ready.

Both B2.1 and B2.2 exit to Curtin College and ELB (English Language Bridging).

CURTIN COLLEGE

Curtin is dedicated to ensuring more students are given a chance to realise their potential. Even if you don't meet the University's academic entry requirements today, Curtin College offers an alternative option to transition straight into the second year of a Curtin bachelor program.

A Curtin College course will prepare you for Curtin campus life. Located on Curtin's flagship Perth Campus, Curtin College offers university degree transfer programs across a range of disciplines. These include commerce, information technology, built environment, arts and creative industries, engineering, health sciences and social sciences.

Eligible students transition directly into a Curtin degree

Offering pre-university studies and one-year diploma programs, eligible Curtin College graduates will be offered entry into the second year of the corresponding bachelor degree at Curtin University.

With intakes in February, June and October, the trimester system at Curtin College means you may transition into the University faster. Some courses, however, follow the Curtin University semester calendar.

Support programs at no extra cost

You'll be able to access a number of support classes to enhance your performance at the College and better prepare you for future study at the University.

COURSE TYPES

Graduate career-ready with a Curtin bachelor degree or see where your career could take you with a postgraduate qualification.

UNDERGRADUATE COURSE TYPES

Bachelor degree
A bachelor degree is the first degree earned at university. At Curtin, it is awarded for completing an undergraduate course of study (three to four years).

Honours
As a natural extension to a bachelor degree, a year of honours study consists of coursework at an advanced level and research or project work (bachelor degree plus one year).

Double degree
Double degrees combine units from two compatible courses. You can complete the two degrees in less time than it would take to complete them separately (at least four years).

POSTGRADUATE COURSE TYPES

Graduate certificate
As a short vocationally-oriented program, graduate certificate courses are designed to develop skills in a specialised area of study (one semester).

Graduate diploma
The graduate diploma is a specialised, vocationally-orientated award usually completed in two semesters. Entry is usually based on completion of a bachelor degree or diploma (one year).

Graduate entry master
Graduate entry master courses provide a fast-track learning experience for students who already hold a bachelor degree (three semesters to two years).

Master degree
A school may accept you into a master degree provided you hold appropriate qualifications as decided by the head of school (three semesters to two years).

RESEARCH DEGREES
Research degrees differ to other postgraduate degrees in that at least two-thirds of the study program involve research. Although some coursework units may be required, the main part of your work will be in the form of a thesis written under the guidance of a supervisor and associate supervisor(s).

Master of Philosophy
The Master of Philosophy aims to expand knowledge beyond the undergraduate honours or postgraduate diploma level, culminating in a research thesis. Upon completion of a master by research degree, you may apply to be considered for entry into a Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) program.

Doctor of Philosophy
As a doctoral research degree candidate, you will uncover new knowledge either by the discovery of new facts, the formulation of theories or the innovative reinterpretation of known data and established ideas. Your research will use an in-depth understanding of theories and concepts to develop practical solutions for real-world problems.

Offshore online courses
You could study online at Curtin while living in your home country. We offer a number of convenient, fully online courses to international offshore students. For more information, visit international.curtin.edu.au.

UNDERGRADUATE ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

For admission to Curtin, you must satisfy minimum academic entry as well as English competency requirements. Entry is competitive and levels higher than the minimum may be required for admission to some courses. A list of the common academic entry requirements can be found in the following tables.

As all courses are taught in English, you will need to meet Curtin’s English language requirements. Any one of the tests in the table on the right will be accepted as satisfying Curtin’s language requirement; however, some courses may require a higher score for English.

Remember, even if you don’t meet Curtin’s academic or English entry requirements, you may be eligible to gain entry into a Curtin degree through accredited university pathways - Curtin English and Curtin College. To learn more, visit international.curtin.edu.au/apply/alternative-entry-pathways

We offer the Master of Philosophy and Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) in most study areas. Professional doctorates are also available in some areas.

Research students carry out independent research supervised by a member of academic staff with the aim of uncovering new knowledge relevant to the discipline or profession.

Although you may need to complete some coursework units, at least two thirds of your degree will be pure research. The major assessment will be in the form of a thesis written under the guidance of a supervisor.

Our Graduate Research School can offer advice on lodging an application for admission, applying for a scholarship, opportunities for professional training and development, and making the most of your time as a research student.

INTAKES AND DURATION
Intake dates are during January and July, but other entry times can be negotiated. Master degrees are two years duration and doctoral degrees are four years.

FEES
Visit courses.curtin.edu.au and find the degree you intend to study for the most up-to-date fee information.

RESEARCH DEGREE ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

These are the general entry requirements for admission into a higher degree by research at Curtin.

You must:

1. have a minimum of four years’ previous study in a tertiary institution
2. meet the eligibility criteria of the Graduate Studies Committee for the proposed study enrolling area(s)
3. have confirmation from the head of your enrolling area that the necessary supervision and facilities can be adequately provided to support your research
4. meet Curtin’s English language requirements for higher degrees by research.

You may be deemed to meet the English language requirements based on completion of a tertiary qualification in which English was the language of instruction. This will be assessed on a case-by-case basis. The table on the right outlines the minimum English language requirements for a postgraduate research degree, however many courses require a higher level of English competence.

For more information on postgraduate research, visit research.curtin.edu.au/postgraduate-research.
