ENABLING GLOBAL EDUCATION

Where Are You In Your Global Education Journey?

Kunal Gera,
Noida

Still deciding if I should study abroad. For now, I'm gathering information on overseas courses.

Nazia Shaikh
Mumbai

Researched enough. Listened to loads of advice. Thoroughly confused about what & where to study!

Siddharth Jog
Delhi

How do I maximize my GRE scores so that I can apply at universities of my choice?

Gauri Bhat,
Navi Mumbai

How do I short list and apply to the right universities and also manage the admissions process without glitches?

Ravi Karthik,
Chennai

Tests taken, courses selected, applications submitted. Am now looking for funding & visa assistance.

Swati Rao,
Hyderabad

All set to sail! Busy looking for workshops that can help me better prepare for student life abroad.

You know global education is your golden opportunity to get ahead in life.

There is only one link between you and a successful future - getting the right kind of global education.

Should I study abroad right now? What courses should I consider? Which are the best universities? Is US the best option? What about the costs? What happens after I graduate? What career opportunities exist?

The questions abound... So do the choices.

Life-changing decisions that you simply can't take chances with!

A bad course selected or a wrong university chosen can set you back for life... Your parents' aspirations, your dreams of a successful life and your entire future could be irreparably compromised...

Realize your dreams!

EGE's counselors in India bring many years of experience advising students on the most suitable course, university & country that matches their potential and career aspirations. Our counseling team is supported by our mentors who are alumni of top global universities.

With their practical advice and guidance, you can find the right answers to your questions.

This essentially means you can better secure your future by minimizing the risks of making the wrong decisions.

Comprehensive Profile Assessment

EGE's counselors analyze a number of criteria to carefully assess your needs and goals. These include your academic background, extra-curricular activities, test scores (or diagnostic test scores if tests are not taken), work experience and career goals among others.

In case you are not clear about your course of study, EGE's counselors under the guidance of a qualified and trained psychologist may administer a psychometric test to gauge your interests and aptitude and suggest suitable programs of study. Through these assessments and tools, EGE's counselors assess you on multiple dimensions – competencies, strengths, weaknesses, areas of improvement, cultural fit etc. Based on the Compass, EGE's counselors make a preliminary recommendation of the most suitable courses and universities.

GRE/ GMAT/ SAT/ IELTS Coaching

EGE offers top of the line classroom coaching for GRE/ GMAT/ SAT & IELTS/TOFEL at our state-of-the art training centers across New Delhi, Gurgaon, Mumbai, Navi Mumbai, Pune, Hyderabad and Chennai. A distinguishing feature of our Test Prep services is our courseware which has been developed by amalgamating the best study material available across specialist & established courses for each test. Our tutors are amongst the best in the industry and bring a strong track record of successful results.

EGE recommends a free Diagnostic Test (DT) and Demo Class to help you make a decision on the type of tests you wish to be coached for.

Mentoring for Admissions Process

Based on the Compass Assessment and your Test Scores, EGE's counselor in consultation with EGE's Central Research Team that comprises of graduates of top global universities, identifies & recommends the best-fit courses/universities for admissions as well as the most suitable package of services from EGE. Your counselor then facilitates and guides you through the various processes – university applications, editorial support for essays & statement of purpose (SOP), interview preparation, scholarship applications and visa documentation.

What makes EGE's MAP a powerful and rigorous program is that the counselor dedicated to you in home country is supported by knowledge inputs from In-House Experts (based in India) as well as Academic Advisors (based in EGE's international offices) who are people with firsthand experience of living and studying abroad.

In addition, our Mentors from the Ivy League and other reputed institutions are available for support and guidance through the process.

sail

Pre-departure Workshops

Prior to departure, EGE offers orientation workshops that sensitize you to the new culture, environment and social etiquettes of your destination country.

SAIL workshops help you to prepare yourself for an environment often characterized by a new approach to learning, working and living. SAIL workshops address a range of issues often faced by students prior to departure, arrival and during the course of study. They are designed to bridge the gap between your eagerness to cope with a new environment and your actual preparedness. Through participation in SAIL workshops, you get to benefit from the personal experiences of graduates who have studied and worked abroad.

Global Expertise To Help You Get Ahead in Life

People who really know

Our mentoring team comprises of alumni of many of the world's most prestigious institutions such as Harvard, MIT, Columbia, Cornell, U Penn, LSE, Michigan - Ann Arbor. Our counselors come with many years of experience in admissions guidance. This combination of our experienced counselors and mentors enables us to provide up-to-date information and critically relevant advice to students.

EGE's Core Beliefs

Each student has the potential to achieve excellence

A fundamental belief at EGE is that every student irrespective of his or her academic background and achievements has the potential to achieve excellence and make a mark in the world. Given the right guidance at the right time, their career trajectory can be a fulfilling one.

Each student is different

The needs, aspirations and competencies of each student are unique; therefore, any generic piece of advice offered is unlikely to work. Our counselors are hence, trained to analyze and understand the unique needs, talents & aspirations of each student and offer personalized guidance.

Best advice is given by someone who's been there, done that

We believe that best advice can only be given by someone who has the first hand experience of that field. Therefore, in our team based in India and international offices, we have graduates of world's leading Universities who work closely with our counselors and students in India to give advice that is relevant and accurate.

Our purpose is to make our students successful

We are passionate about guiding students to reach their true potential. The above beliefs unite each one of the team members at EGE to work with students' best interest in mind.

EGE Global Support Infrastructure

Global presence. Local support.

Through our offices in New York, Toronto, London & Singapore we are able to offer critical and continuous local assistance to our students through their course of study. Further, our expertise is not limited to any particular country. We are able to provide expert advice for all major destination countries with equal competence. Our offices in destination countries maintain an ongoing dialogue and relationship with leading universities to understand the profile of international students they are seeking. This allows EGE to accurately match your aspirations with the right set of universities.

On arrival and during your course of study, our Academic Advisors & International office staff are available for any guidance, advice & support you may need.

EGE's Mandate

- Guide the students to find their true potential and the best options for global education through objective assessments & unbiased advice.
- Keep the student's best interests at heart when making course, university & country recommendations.
- Help both the students and parents appreciate the real opportunities and challenges in overseas education.
- Apply global insights and real know-how from experts who have 'been there, done that'.
- Deliver comprehensive admissions guidance and mentoring program customized to the student's needs & one that offers the best opportunities to succeed and get ahead in life.
